Why Young Living?

Young Living has provided its members with a Seed to Seal quality commitment for over 25 years! This promise consists of three pillars - Sourcing, Science, and Standards. You can trust that Young Living is providing you with products of the highest quality and purity - from the seed to the sealed bottle.

Sourcing

Products are sourced from corporately-owned farms, partner farms, and Seed to Seal certified suppliers to ensure consistency, quality, and conservation.

Science

Between 50 highly-trained scientists, two corporate quality labs, and 12+ independent partner labs, Young Living does meticulous quality testing and retesting to ensure your products are as pure as nature intended.

Standards

Young Living takes the responsibility of stewardship very seriously. From ethically sourcing and producing pure ingredients to going above and beyond to comply with local environmental rules and sustainable growing practices, they have set a high standard that you can trust.
